第十五话 秦王嬴政

Alpha Book

Who is it?

You dare barge in here, do you want to die?

Is Le Yue inside?
Let me in!

She Kiki

59x: stop

She won't say

She felt

Sfx: slap

She's alive.

She blipped cheeks

Because of you, I was able to feel better about myself.
This is all my fault...

Why, didn't I tell her earlier, and didn't hold onto her... I didn't start...

I know that...
But you can't just say it and forget everything you just said to me.

Give some time to yourself. You'll find your own happiness sooner or later.

Actually, I never planned to do anything.
I just gave her some of the drink that could cause sleep, and was going to tell her that I did do something when she woke up...

Sadly, in this time period, Li Yue will probably only call one person... your majesty.

秦王嬴政

He rose to the throne at age thirteen, but at his eighth year, so he should be roughly around twenty-one

Your... Your Majesty...

Mix Zheng, Min Zheng, combining them together isn't that the word Zheng? However I not realize that my brain is exploding...

Tp1: In Chinese, you can combine two characters together to form another character. The word 'Zheng' combined with another character also creates the character 'Zheng'. I pronounced the same way, but written differently.
